A dirty horse gets penalties for the regeneration of the sanitary bar. On this page we will tell you how to clean your horse in RDR2 and how to take acquire a brush that can be used to clean your horse. There are three ways to clean the horse. The first is the least effective, but also the simplest available, requiring you to simply walk your horse in a body of water (e.g. one of the rivers). The second way is to use a toilet brush, except you won’t find it in the character’s starting equipment. Fortunately, it’s very easy to get it, because you just need to complete the Exit Pursued mission by a Brushed Ego in the second chapter of the main plot. As part of this mission, you visit the stables in the city of Valentine’s Day to buy a new horse. After completing the transaction, you will receive the brush as a gift. From now on you can choose the Horse tab and the Grooming Brush from the drop-down menu. The third way is to pay someone to take care of your horse in the stables. The cleaning service is performed in combination with the renewal and strengthening of the horse’s health and strength bars. Next FAQ Horse – can I change it?
