Pride. in Haryana Shahari Vikas Pradhikaran (HSVP), formerly Haryana Urban Development Authority (HUDA),[1] Ã© the urban planning agency of Haryana state in N.A., except Gurugram and Faridabad which has Gurugram Metropolitan Development Authority and Faridabad Metropolitan Development Authority, respectively. It was created in 1977. The Minister of Urbanism and Urbanism, Haryana, © president of the authority. The authority's office is located in Panchkula, Haryana. HSIIDC is © related government agency responsible for industrial and infrastructure development in the state of Haryana. [2][3] Haryana Financial Corporation provides financial assistance for the creation of new industrial units and for the expansion and diversification of existing industries. [4] Several universities, educational and training institutes, including the first university of national competences Haryana Vishwakarma Skill University, provide the human resources to capitalize on the taxes offered by HFC and the infrastructure created by HSIIDC. Among the related initiatives to boost growth, Haryana was the first state to introduce labor policy in 2005,[3][5] and land planning policy in 2017. [6] History HUDA was established in 1977 as a statutory government agency in 1977 under the Haryana Urban Development Authority Act, 1977 for the planned development of cities in Haryana. [7] On 1 June 2017, the Haryana Government office, headed by Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar, decided to rename it to haryana Shahari Vikas Pradhikaran (HSVP), because HUDA sounded similar to the surname of former Chief Minister Bhupinder Singh Hooda. [1] Due to the lack of coordination between the Department of Urban Properties and departments of the Government of Haryana, the growth of properties propertiesSlow down. Hello. © Therefore, since the Department had to follow the financial rules and regulations o f the Government, the organization of funds and the sanction of the estimates used to take a long time and development work did not follow the required standards of performance. Also considered © m that, being a government department, it was not possible to obtain resources from various credit institutions © said, although there were many financial institutions in the countries to finance urban development programmes. The Urban State Department was not effective in pursuing its defined planned urban development objectives to the general public. Thus, in order to overcome all these difficulties and achieve the expeditious development of urban properties, it was considered that the Urban Properties Department should be converted into such a body, that could assume all development activities in itself and provide several installations in Urban Properties expeditiously and, consequently, the Haryana Urban Development Authority emerged in 13-01-1977 under the Urban Development Authority of Haryana Act, 1977. To take on roles, responsibilities even © now run by individual government departments. The authority divided the Haryana districts into four divisions or zones except Gurugram.
