printing companies make label design a breeze. Worse than dial up. I also hear crappy recordings, and they DO sound like crap. That goes for Auratones as well. I mean in the stuff where you are not "checking the sub constantly." Sometimes. You can find a label maker at any office retailer or online.When working with a label maker, simply enter your information and specify your label size. You can use them as absorption panels which you then place on the walls instead of behind. But that won't be the case for everyone and there's certainly nothing inherently wrong with mixing with a sub; I simply prefer my own results without it.
