Photo Courtesy: Britt Gaiser/Unsplash Whether it’s an impromptu adventure or a more elaborate get-together, a picnic in the park or on the beach with your family will be fun. Snacks, drinks and nice weather are really all you need, but experienced picnic planners know all the best tricks to take their outdoor lunch to the next level. Here’s a guide to all the gadgets, games and accessories needed for the best family picnic ever. One of the most important things you need for a picnic is the perfect blanket, like this gingham from Laguna Beach. Ideal for a picnic on the beach, in the park or even in your own garden, the possibilities are endless! Cosy, machine washable fleece with a waterproof underlining means you can picnic just about anywhere, and the blanket comes in your own packable bag for easy travel and storage. It measures a generous 72 inches by 57 inches. If you keep putting off a picnic because it’s too much trouble to plan, you need this ingenious Scuddles cooler. It comes with everything you need, so you can relax and focus on having fun with friends and family. The soft, insulated cooling device keeps sandwiches and drinks cold for up to 12 hours and has a compact design that makes it easy to carry anywhere. Even better, it comes with a full dining room for four people. Simply unlock the front compartment to discover silverware, cutlery, glasses, dishes and more. No picnic is complete without music, and this Zosam portable Bluetooth speaker delivers crystal-clear sound wherever you are. That’s enough It can be tossed into a bag or a backpack in an instant, but powerful enough to keep everyone in line for hours. It’s also waterproof, so you don’t have to worry about a sudden thunderstorm or rain, and the rechargeable lithium-ion battery lasts up to 10 hours (charging cable included). The Bluetooth Bluetooth system provides a stable connection, so you never lose a second of your favorite song. A pair of high-performance speakers ensures deep bass and distortion-free sound. Picnics are a great way to enjoy a nice day with the family, but sitting on hard ground for a long time can become uncomfortable. Next time pack the ONIVA portable camping chair, and everyone else will soon want to be as smart as you. The sturdy but lightweight aluminum frame folds for easy storage and movement and can support up to 300 kilos, thanks to the canvas seat and padded armrests made of sturdy poly material. It’s a folding sliding table for food and beverages, plus isolated beverage bags and an accessory organizer for phone, books, magazines and more. Whether you’re having a picnic in the park or on the beach, an insulated refrigerator is an absolute must. This 16-quarter style by Igloo is designed to do much more than contain soda and sandwiches. The lid has two built-in cup holders and a media slot to hold phones, tablets and more. The cooler stores up to three 2-litre bottles of your favorite beverage or up to a dozen cans with ice. Ideal for quick trips and picnics, it can be easily carried, even when fully packed. The handle is flat for easy storage when not in use. It’s a horror scenario of our days: you and your family are enjoying an epic picnic when suddenly everyone realizes their phones are running out of power. But not you, of course, because you remembered to bring the Anker PowerCore portable charger, which has enough ports for everyone to connect and recharge. Although it looks small, this battery holds a powerful punch, with a capacity of 26,800 mAh that can charge most phones up to six times with a single charge. A trio of high-speed USB charging ports allow fast and efficient charging of multiple devices at the same time. You spent all morning preparing some side dishes for your big family picnic, but after an hour or two, you lost your appetite because of the flies. Next time, don’t forget to bring these portable tents online for a quick and easy way to protect your food from ants, bees and other unwanted guests. Three deluxe sized pop-up curtains have sturdy but lightweight frames and include an extra layer of netting on the bottom for total protection against mosquitoes and other creepy crawlers. Each tent measures 16 inches by 16 inches by 11 inches, and the set comes with a travel bag for easy storage. There’s nothing more romantic than a nice picnic in the park with the person who and the Picnic at Ascot insulated refrigerator is the perfect solution for packaging wine and cheese. The messenger-style design makes it easy to carry without feeling bulky, and it is available in a variety of colors and patterns so you can picnic in style. The interior contains two bottles in a fully insulated interior compartment that has enough space for two glasses of acrylic wine, plus a divider to store the safe and secure. Also included are a chopping board, abnormal for turkey, napkins and cheese knife. The sturdy exterior canvas is easy to wash and durable enough to withstand years of use. Straws are something I probably don’t think about most of the time, but small plastic tubes are a big environmental problem because of how long they take to break down â¨¬” about 500 years! Do your part to help away these colorful, biodegradable straws at your next picnic. You can still sip the style without the environmental fallout. The eco-friendly straws are made of high quality free paper, BPA and are colored with food ink that does not work. They are really durable enough to use more than once. Use them for water, soda, frozen drinks and other non-leisure drinks. Take your picnic game to the next level with the handheld Kurso Shake blender that will make you whip custom drinks in seconds. The powerful engine can handle frozen and frozen drinks in a flash, and the whole unit weighs less than a pound, so you can take it almost anywhere. Made of durable and BPA-free materials, the single serving blender makes the creation of single juices, smoothies and other drinks. Just fill the cup, attach it to the base and mix. The blender does not work if the cup is not attached properly, and the device also has an internal mechanism to prevent overheating. Sure, most people think of cold food and refrigerators when it comes to picnics, but with this double insulated casserole case, you could completely reinvent the picnic wheel. Potato Au Gratin instead of potato salad? Sauteed spinach casserole instead of a salad? If you can cook it, you can have it! The dense poly material has a double insulation inside which keeps the food hot longer a longer amount of time. You can mount up to a 5-quarter plate in the lower compartment. If you need more space, just unzip the expandable top compartment. The external compartment with external zipper is perfect for storing tools, napkins and more. Nothing kills the atmosphere of a picnic faster than the bugs, so the next time you head out into the great outdoors throw some completely natural bug soother bug repellent in your bag. It is the safest and easiest way to protect your family from mosquitoes, fleas and other unwanted pests during your outdoor adventure. Bug Soother is made with a safe and non-toxic blend of essential oils of lemonella that repel all sorts of creatures, both flying and earth-based. Because it is made without the use of chemicals like Deet, it is safe for children and pets. And best of all? The scent of fresh lemongrass has a Of vanilla, so you didn't win your mind. The portable food heater at Crank-Pot is another of those picnic objects that change game that will leave you wondering how you ever survived without it. You can put chili pepper, spinach-artichoke dip, rice and more on the table (picnic) when you pack this rechargeable cooker that is also easy to clean. The compact compact Keeps the 20 ounces of your favorite hot foods for hours, thanks to the insulation of the dishwasher. Even when the food inside is hot, the outside remains fresh to the touch. The cable wraps neatly in the case and the external cover handle locks for storage. You feel a baby again with easy Delta Fly kite in hand. Guaranteed to be a success to your next picnic, the kite is easy to assemble and fly and has a 60-inch suffering and colored queues that seem particularly impressive from the ground.
