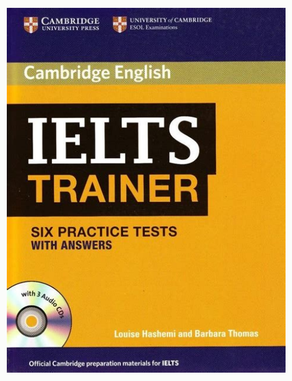
Easy listening ielts practice test with answers



Speaking sample task – Part 1

Part 1 Introduction and interview

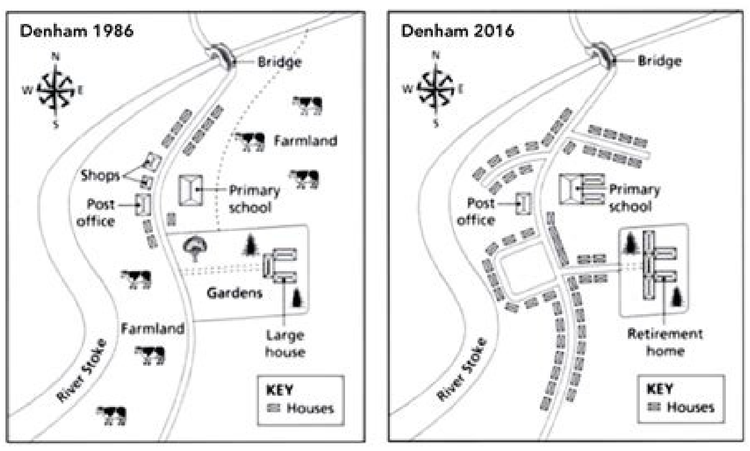
[This part of the test begins with the examiner introducing himself or herself and checking the candidate's identification. It then continues as an interview.]

Let's talk about your home town or village.

- What kind of place is it?
- What's the most interesting part of your town/village?
- What kind of jobs do the people in your town/village do?
- Would you say it's a good place to live? (Why?)

Let's move on to talk about accommodation.

- Tell me about the kind of accommodation you live in?
- How long have you lived there?
- What do you like about living there?
- What sort of accommodation would you most like to live in?



It consists of four sections of increasing difficulty, and there is a total of 40 questions to answer.The test is played ONCE only. The outline will focus on the main ideas/facts in the text. It may also be used to assess your ability to recognise relationships and connections between facts in the listening text. You will need to complete labels on a plan (e.g. of a building), map (e.g. of part of a town) or diagram (e.g. of a piece of equipment). You can usually select your answers from a list on the question paper. This matching task assesses your ability to understand, for example, a description of a place, and to relate this to a visual representation. Hyphenated words count as single words, e.g. 'police-man'. Short-answer focuses on the ability to listen for concrete facts, such as places, prices or times, within the listening text. There is no shortcut to success and practice is the first step to the journey. Explore a variety of free and paid practice material on IELTS Prepare to give yourself the best chance of securing a high band score in your IELTS Listening test. This may include being able to follow language expressing directions (e.g. straight on/turn left/opposite). Sample questionsAudio recordingIn this completion task, you are required to fill in the gaps in an outline of part or of all of the listening text. Hyphenated words count as single words, e.g. 'police-man'. Sentence completion focuses on your ability to identify the key information in a listening text. You may be required to have a detailed understanding of specific points or an overall understanding of the main points of the listening text.Sample questionAudio recordingYou are required to match a numbered list of items from what you hear in the listening audio to a set of options on the question paper. It may be: A form: used to record factual details such as names, addresses, telephone numbers A set of notes: used to summarise information using the layout to show how different items relate to one another A table: used to summarise information which relates to clear categories – e.g. place/time/price, A flow-chart: used to summarise a process which has clear stages, with the direction of the process shown by arrows. You will select the missing words in either way: From a list presented in the question paper From the recording You must keep to the word limit stated in the instructions and use the exact words you hear from the recording. You should read the instructions very carefully as the number of words or numbers you should use will vary. A word limit is given, for example, 'NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS AND/OR A NUMBER'. As you listen to each section you will be given time to read the questions, write your answers on the question paper, and then check them. The set of options may be criteria of some kind. Matching assesses the skill of listening for detail and whether you can understand information given in a conversation on an everyday topic, such as identifying different types of hotel or guest house accommodation. Duration: 30 minutes The Listening test is the same for both IELTS Academic test and IELTS General Training test. You will need to answer 40 questions in response to four recordings. You will listen to four recordings which are a mix of monologues and conversations from a range of native speakers and you will only hear each recording once. There are 10 questions for each part of the Listening test. These questions test your ability to understand: Main ideas and detailed factual information The opinions and attitudes of speakers The purpose of an utterance The ability to follow the development of ideas. Listening part details: Recording 1 A conversation between two people set in an everyday social context. Recording 2 A monologue set in an everyday social context, e.g. a speech about local facilities. Recording 3 A conversation between up to four people set in an educational or training context, e.g. a university tutor and a student discussing an assignment. Recording 4 A monologue on an academic subject, e.g. a university lecture. Multiple choice questions can be answered with one correct answer, or more than one correct answer. So, the Listening Test will last 40 minutes in total. At the end of Section 4 you will be given 10 minutes to transfer your answers to the Listening Answer Sheet. Use it to assess your English-language skills and get a better idea of where you might need to improve to succeed in your IELTS test. If you use more than the word limit, your answer will be marked as incorrect so check the word limit carefully for each question. Listening is the first module in the IELTS test, and takes 30 minutes. This website uses cookies to ensure you get the best experience on our website. You must understand functional relationships such as cause and effect. Sample questionAudio recordingIn the short-answer question type, you are required to read a question and then write a short answer using information from the listening text. Sometimes test takers are given a question which asks them to list two or three points. A word limit is given, for example, 'NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS AND/OR A NUMBER'. A word limit is given, for example, 'NO MORE THAN ONE WORD AND/OR A NUMBER'. You should read the instructions very carefully as the number of words or numbers you should use will vary. A word limit is given, for example, 'NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS AND/OR A NUMBER'. Contracted words will not be tested, e.g. 'don't'. Hyphenated words count as single words, e.g. 'police-man'. This gap completion task focuses on the main points which a listener would naturally record in this type of situation. Sample questionRecordingSample questionsAudio recordingAnswersIn this sentence completion task, you are required to read a set of sentences summarising key information from either: all the listening textfrom one part of it. You will then fill a gap in each sentence using information from the listening text. Learn more Make sure you add our free IELTS Listening practice test sample questions to your IELTS study plan. Read the question very carefully to check how many answers are required. In a multiple choice question, where you are required to choose one correct answer (A, B or C), you will be given: a question followed by three possible answers the beginning of a sentence followed by three possible ways to complete the sentence. In a multiple choice question, where you are required to choose more than one correct answer you will be given a longer list of possible answers and told that you have to choose more than one answer. Multiple choice questions are used to test a wide range of skills. It also assesses your ability to follow a conversation between two people.
