Part 1 of Direction No. 69 - Preliminary

Name of Direction

This Direction is Direction No. 69 - Assessing the genuine temporary entrant criterion for Student visa and Student Guardian visa applications.

It may be cited as Direction No. 69.

Commencement

This Direction commences on 1 July 2016.

Interpretation

Act means the Migration Act 1958.

Genuine temporary entrant means a person who satisfies the genuine temporary entrant criterion for Student visa or Student Guardian visa applications.

Genuine temporary entrant criterion refers to clause 500.212(a), 500.312(a) and 590.215(a) at Schedule 2 to the Regulations.

Home country has the same meaning as the definition of that term in regulation 1.03 in Part 1 of the Regulations.

Regulations mean the Migration Regulations 1994.

Relative has the same meaning as the definition of that term in regulation 1.03 in Part 1 of the Regulations.

Spouse has the same meaning as the definition of the term in section 5F of the Act.

Student visa means a Subclass 500 (Student) visa

Student Guardian visa means a Subclass 590 (Student Guardian) visa.

Application

This Direction applies to delegates performing functions or exercising powers under section 65 of the Act in relation to assessing an applicant's temporary entrant criterion for Student visa applications in Schedule 2 to the Regulations.

This Direction also applies to members of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal who review the decisions of primary decision-makers in relation to a Student visa or a Student Guardian visa application.

The genuine temporary entrant criterion must be satisfied by all applicants who make an application for either a Student visa seeking to satisfy the primary criteria for a Student Guardian visa.

Our teams in the UK, South Africa and Australia can assure you that when you decide to move to country, invest in country or expand your business internationally, you'll do it with the support of local experts. We traveled together We have photos, tickets, invitations and other evidence of a shared social life. It often used by couples who would otherwise not qualify as having a de facto relationship. A visa for an Australian partner usually takes 12-24 months depending on the visa. Sable International offers a visa-free guarantee for the above visas. Partner subclasses 820 (Temporary) and 801 (Permanent) can only be requested if you are already Australia. Do you want to ensure that your visa application has the best possibilities successful? CiÃ² means that your question will be assessed against the criteria for a temporary and permanent partner visa. A de facto relationship can2 be with a person of the same sex or of different sex.A prospective marriage visa (sub-class 300), also known as "engagement visaÂ", Ā Ì a nine-month permit that allows a partner to come to Australia to marry an Australian citizen. Our visa advisers have experience in ensuring that people get the desired visa. Due to the financial risk associated with this visa, many applicants choose to work through migration agencies to increase their possibilities success. In addition to the visa fee, applicants must take into account the costs of possible medical examinations and police checks, which are not reimbursable in case of rejection of the application. Sharing Responsibilities households (like renting a property together, raising children together or paying utilities together) and we can provide evidence. Onshore vs offshore There are subclasses of visa partners depending on whether you are applying from abroad or you are already in Australia. What are the different for Australian partner visas? Their classification depends on whether the visa is temporary or permanent and where the application is lodged. Applicants with less than three years of probation will receive a Temporary Partner Visa and will be able to apply for a Permanent Partner Visa two years after submitting the initial visa application. Once granted, the Permanent Partner Visa is valid for five years and once certain residency requirements are met, you could apply for citizenship. Applicants who can show that they have had a conjugal or de facto relationship with their Australian partner for a minimum period of three years will be eligible for a permanent partner visa. We have common finances or financial obligations and we can provide evidence. This guarantees that we will accept your case and send your application only when we are sure it will be approved. 1. We have joint finances or financial obligations and can provide evidence. The subclass of visa you apply for will depend on the relationship and where you apply for it. Australian partner visas provide a way for those who have a serious and committed relationship with an Australian citizen, permanent resident or eligible New Zealand citizen to join their partners in Australia. Married vs De facto Relationship vs Future Marriage The partner visa makes allowance for different types of partners. Checklist for a partner visa Use this checklist for Australian partner visas to determine if you might be eligible. You will be issued the appropriate visa, depending on the criteria you meet. The visa holder is required to marry his or her Australian partner and apply for visas for partners in subclasses 820 and 801 before the prospective marriage visa expires.
