We are working to have them reprinted as quickly as possible – feel free to submit an application for one and we will send it to you as soon as we can. In the meantime, we invite you to download and share these resources digitally: I currently live in Chicago, but grew up in the beautiful 48th state of Arizona, and I visit once every few months. AZ is quite strange for most people who have not been there, many people who speak to imagine cacti, tumbleweeds and dirt. And while Arizona has all that, it has so much more to offer, and it’s so much nicer than people think! I’ve lived in a few cities in AZ: Tempe, Flagstaff, Gilbert and Scottsdale. Every city in Arizona has something different for everyone, and I wanted to highlight the best things to do in Arizona, especially if you’re on vacation there. If you currently live in AZ, you might learn about something you didn’t know before! I’ve broken everything down by general geographic area, but I know that the Phoenix subway area is surrounded by multiple highways, so nothing is too far away. I will be updating this list frequently, so be sure to check again if you are planning a trip! Also feel free to give me a shout if you are visiting Arizona and have more questions; I am more than happy to brag about this incredible state! // What to Eat: (He broke through the neighborhood) Phoenix The Clever Koi OMG you, this place is divine. I recently went to this delicious Asian food restaurant and got ramen. Let me tell you, “The Clever Koi lived to my expectations and more. NOTE: The Clever Koi is also open in the centerpizzeria bianco could continue all day talking about this place, but the critiques of pizzeria bianco speak for themselves: "The new york times calls the pizza "perhaps the best of America" («The road to pizza nirvana passes through Phoenix», nyt, July 2004) "Rachael ray declared: pizzeria bianco the winner of her pizza madness bracket, a pizzeria. "If you go to dinner, make sure you get there with some time to wait! the queues can be quite long, especially on weekends. Mattâ s big breakfast Mattâ»s is its typical local breakfast cafe, and is popular for a good reason. but a jota warning: get ready for a little wait! This place is so popular, and they only accept reservations for parties of 6 or more. They also have a new location in the Biltmore area.Photo by fox rc culinary dropout + the culinary dropout yard has an eclectic American menu, but perhaps the most important dish are pretzel bites. They come with a cheese bucket to dive, and it's impossible to resist. in its phoenix location, this restaurant is attached to a place called the yard, which has lawn games and a large patio! I definitely recommend it if you want a quiet night! Furthermore, it cools during the summer, so you can still enjoy it even in August. the crowned the crowned is a vegetarian/vegan restaurant, cafeteria and bar located in the historic crowning district of phoenix. This neighborhood is positively filled with beautiful historical houses in which I want to move immediately. Eat and drink here, then walk around the neighborhood during the day and look at the houses! Beckettâ s table Beckettâ s table is an oasis of very popular comfort food, with unique touches on American seasonal favorites. if you are looking for some southern hospitality, visit your brother restaurant, southern rail. flower child flower child is a fox restaurant, and it is definitely up to theof your parent company. He is healthy and and With a cute decoration and a large outdoor seating area! In addition, it is right next to some of my favorite stores: French, local Nomad and practical Art. Phoenix Public Market + Café IÃ ¢ â € M anywhere that sells local treats and delicious food. Phoenix Public Market is an outdoor market that is open all year, and has farmers and local artists who seek to celebrate neighborhoods and neighbors. The cafeteria, on the other hand, is an informal urban meeting place that offers breakfast, lunch and dinner. The outdoor market is open the Saturdays (May-September) of 8 a.m. At midday, and the Saturdays (October-April) of 8 a.m. At 13 p.m., so if I were you would go for one of these schedules so you can experience the market and cafe at the same time! Hingo Central Desoto Desoto Market is a great meeting place for a group with many unique foodbeats. They combine enough boutique restaurants as an oyster bar, a hamburger, a southern cuisine, Mexican-Asian Fusion, a café + TÃ ©, and a cuisine of salads and juxthequences. Desoto is also home to many classes and free events, such as yoga, latin dances and swing for a live swing band! Federal Pizza Another great pizza place in Phoenix is located in Federal Pizza. Created by one of my favorite restaurant groups, Upward Projects, Federal Pizza has something for everyone. They have a wide and creative salad card, as well as, of course, pizza. I recommend the Trão de Melangers as an appetizer! Windsor Another concept of Upwards Projects, Windsor is a new American Mecca. His menu is quite broad, and the best thing is that they are united to Churn. Churn Churn is linked to Windsor, and is by far my favorite Arizona ice cream. Yes, the whole state. Its delicious ice cream is home, whipped, and only has good things "without chemical products. Your staff is the most kind people you will never meet, and they sell a vintage treats for the child in the heart. Take a cone (or two) and sit on your back(it warms during the winter). It's divine. Joyride Taco House Joyride is and will forever be one of my favorite Mexican joints. The decoration is impeccable, and its courtyard is amazing. All they serve is absolutely perfect, from their margaritas to their tacos and burritos. You definitely check if you want some Mexican flavor! Luci Luci Luci’s Healthy Market is a great lunch place with a touch: not only have good prepared food (and iced tea), but they have a store with local and regional natural/organic suppliers, including food, wine and beer, supplements, cosmetics, baby care, pet care, cleaning, gifts and more. It's like a mini, local Whole Foods! Cibo Cibo serves 100% Neapolitan pizza and serve it well. But don't take my word for it, look at his menu here. Tempe House of Tricks House of Tricks is a local favorite; they have a seasonal tour menu and it's always good! My favorite dish there in the past was the bone marrow — if you have it, try it! Oregano's With its multiple locations throughout the state of AZ, the oregano has impressive Italian food in a great atmosphere — it's very casual! They have a ton of locations, so make sure there's a fence where you stay (probably there is). Oh, and you can't go there without getting a pizza cookie (a melty chocolate cookie with a few spoons of vanilla ice cream on top). The Yard El Yard I mentioned earlier is also in Tempe! Go there for drinks, games and a fun atmosphere, and thank you later! Cornish Pasty Co Cornish is a basic Tempe, and one of my favorites of all time. A cake is like a handcake, and full of delicious goodness. Idan's favorite is The Pilgrim, who knows how to Thanksgiving, and my favorite is The Chicken Pot Pie or The Meatball. You must go here if you're in Tempe! There is also a location in Old Town Scottsdale. North Scottsdale photo viaRestaurant Concepts North Italy North Italy es a one Italian food restaurant with locations in North Scottsdale (Kierland Commons) and Arcadia. They are so good! The real cuisine of real food The food is going to my family. Your food is affordable, healthy and delicious! It's great for any meal. Actually, they just opened a location in Chicago too (Thank you kindness)! Everyone who I know loves True Food Kitchen â € â € œTo a chance! Old Town Scottsdale Postino, Malltiples Locations My favorite restaurant all the time in Phoenix is Postino â € "They have tons of places in Tempe, Scottsdale, Phoenix, Gilbert and North Scottsdale. It is an appetizer and a wines bar (serve sandwiches and salads too), and the best thing to do is get a bottle and a bruschetta plate! You can get both for $ 20 on Mondays and Tuesday after 20:00. Another suggestion would be divided a salad and a bruschetta table with a friend. Chopshop, Tempe, Chandler, Paradise Valley and Old Town Scottsdale Chopshop is another of my famous all the time, it is a very healthy restaurant and casual restaurant with places in Tempe, Old Town Scottsdale and Downtown Chandler. My favorite things are the beet salad and the cabbage cleaning juice. Chompies, Tempe and Scottsdale If you are looking for a typical Jewish, Chompies is he. They have locations at Tempe and Scottsdale, and the best Matzah ball soup in AZ. Collect a box of black and white cookies while you are there! Olive & Ivy, Old Town Scottsdale Olive & Ivy is the perfect place for dating night in Scottsdale! It is not too expensive, but it feels luxurious enough to make any dinner there a special one. The service is also impeccable! Queen neighborhood This is another of my family's staples! Barrio Queen serves Mexican food incredible â € œAf if you go, you have to get the guacor from the table! Arcadia Farms Cafe This cute place is charming for lunch! Again with new American food - It can go wrong with that, though, right? Everything here is local, fresh, natural and organic. The Mission Mission Mission Latin cuisine in the heart of the old town Scottsdale. You will love it. Sugar Bowl The Sugar Bowl is an old, super famous and super delicious super delicious restaurant. The Brownie Sundae is my go, but I have also gone just a cup of café with friends. It is also an Instagram. Check out the arcade games on the back! Sumomaya Sumomaya is a delicious turn in Mexican and Asian food, you have to try to believe it. Make sure to make a reservation ... This place is embedded! Arcadia (between Scottsdale and Phoenix) Photo of Business Phoenix Ohso Brewery Ohso is one of my favorites of all times of Phoenix. It is a brewery with good food, and encourage dogs in the backyard! The location of Arcadia retreats a channel, and during the best meteorological months, it is common to see people by bicycle and Ohso along the channel. Even they have a bicycle station with tools so you can give your wheels an affinity while waiting for your food! Â¡ VICTICIA! Note: They are opening another location in the center of Gilbert soon! The support is fine, guys, the stand is one of the best kept secrets of Arcadia and in my opinion, completely underestimated. The stand serves hamburgers, tacos and some damn delicious smoothies. Do not say that you never told you about this hidden gem! Chelsea cuisine. ILOVE THIS PLACE! They have chocolate sparks cookies with salt with salted so that it is waiting (in a jar in the front), and they have a large backyard with a fantastic atmosphere. A real local restaurant, this will always be one of my favorites. The Henry, I know I keep saying that all these restaurants are my favorites, but it's because they are! Henry has an incredible brunch menu and the courtyard is incredible. If you need a place to work from home, Henry is! They have an entire room separate with huge tables, applying stores and free WiFi. Is my going, every time I work (which is quite often). When the weather is pleasant, the patio is delicious (especially if you can get the fire!).Parlor The Parlor is a fantastic pizza place in downtown Phoenix next to the Biltmore. They have an amazing pizza, but I'm especially a fan of their risotto. The Great Orange The Great Orange is a favorite of Phoenix cult. A combined dessert and a gift shop / kitchen, also have a cute little restaurant along with delicious pizza. Personally, I like to go here for desserts and gifts. They make the most beloved cakes for special occasions — they appear with one of these at a birthday dinner and you are sure to be the best guest! Do not forget to receive a photo of the infamous orange mural (photo above). It's the nicest thing! // AZ-themed gear that helps water conservation efforts in Arizona: // WHAT'S RERCA: The Beverly (Old Town Scottsdale) Beverly is an elegant cocktail bar and a great place to date! Idan and I and our friends frequent this every time I'm in town (there are about 5 more photos like the previous ones, we're just wearing different clothes). Under According to all my friends who still live there, UnderTow is the newest and hottest bar. It is a tiki bar with submarine theme and you have to make a reservation to enter. Your visit is limited to 90 minutes because it is so popular. If you go, let me know how it is! Cold beer and cheeseburgers (Old City Scottsdale) This place is exactly what it sounds like. Go here to watch a sports game (go to sports!!) Whiskey Row (Old Town Scottsdale) If you want country music, you have it in Whiskey Row! It's Dierks Bentley's bar, and it's known for making appearances from time to time Casey Moore Oyster House (Tempe) Casey Moore is a favorite of the Worship Season; an old Irish bar full of hipsters and craft beer. I think they also serve oysters. Four Brewing Co peaks (Tempe) One of the proudest achievements of AZ: Four Brewing Co Peaks. Get a Kiltlifter if you go! It's his most popular beer. Bitter " Twisted (DowntownBitter & quot; Twisted is an elegant codtel bar. Cartelies. from the Phoenix Center. Perfect for dating night or a night with girls! The Whining pig (previously the cat’s mantle) (Arcadia) This interesting bar has classic game consoles like Nintendo on each table, plus life-size billiards with bowling balls! They also have classic old snacks to buy if you’re feeling nostalgic. I love this unique place! Crescent Ballroom (Downtown Phoenix) This bar and concert venue is perfect if you can catch a show! Find your schedule here. view image Downtown Phoenix Journal El Duce (Downtown Phoenix) A quirky place with a boxing ring in the center. They have fresh juice cocktails and many games to play! // THE PHOENIX COFFEE SCENE Sip Coffee & Beer House (Old Town Scottsdale and Arcadia) Sip has a coffee, tea and beer. They are a day and night place, and often have live music (go ahead and check!). They also have board games so good luck not to spend all night there. Coffee Lab Cartel (Old Town Scottsdale and Tempe) Hipsters from Scottsdale and Tempe join in the Coffee Lab Cartel. They really have good coffee, however, and plenty of indoor and outdoor space to work or catch up with a friend. Press the Coffee Heaters (North Scottsdale) If you’re looking for a big coffee shop in North Scottsdale, this is the only one. It is at the Kierland Commons shopping mall, and has a great selection of drinks. Personally I love your teas, and I can spend hours after hours sitting there and working and watching people go by. Lux (Downtown Phoenix) Of all these cafes, Lux is the biggest. It is a cult favorite downtown, with plenty of space and a variety of different foods and drinks. Lux is open late and they serve alcohol, so you can burn the midnight oil or have cocktails with friends. Be sure to take one of their free postcards â they’re always creative and fun to pick up! // What to do in the mountain of Hike there are 2 trails: Cholla and Echo Canyon. Canyon. Who are you talking about, one is easier than the other, so I'm not going to move you in any way. But I will say: it does not matter what side you get up, this walk is not for the heart's hearts â € â € œThe quite difficult to be prepared! And for the love of God, please do not hide in the summer. I do not want to see you in the news a day. Do not be a Hero. The upper part of Pietewa Peak Hike Pietewa Peak Another of my favorite walks in Phoenix. It is just outside the 51 motorway, so easy to get from where you stay! This is also a difficult walk, but I believe in you! Hike Tom's Thumb If you are looking for a more easy walk, take a look at Tom's thumb at the McDowell Mountain Preserve. A walking walker with the same entrance is the door loop, around a 3.6-mile loop with a constant inclination. When he lived in Scottsdale, hidden Gateway all the time before work for the morning! It takes about an hour if you are rapid. Hike the hole in the rock I can hardly call this a walk. Known more for its picturesque views, Hole in the Rock is located right in the botanic garden of the desert and the Phoenix Zoologic. The full walk will take you about 15 minutes (if it is so), but the view from â € œtopâ € is really beautiful. Note: â € œHe hiddenâ € this in a dress and sandals once, if that tells you how easy it is! // Enjoy a day trip to Sedona A beautiful view from part of the walk from the Rock Sedona Cathedral is, in my opinion, one of the most beautiful places on the planet. The red rocks are absolutely impressive at any time of the day. Sedona is about 2 hours drive from Phoenix, and is almost a direct shot by I-17. If you go to Sedona, you have to go from excursion. Some of my favorite walks are the Rock Cathedral (DIFCIL), the Diablo Bridge (moderate), and West Fork (easy). You can also go to the picturesque Oak Creek Canyon, where I passed many weekends when at the school in northern Arizona University. Please note â if you park anywhere in Sedona that is not a parking lot, you will need a Network A daily pass is $5, but you can get weekly passes for less money as well. The center of Sedona is a bit touristy, but there are some great places to eat and shop! Some of my favorites are those at Picazzo (gluten-free all, and it’s so delicious,) Javelina Cantina (Mexican food), and LâAuberge Restaurant. via tlaq.com You can’t go to Sedona without exploring Tlaquepaque. This amazing place (don’t make me spell again) is a haven for local artists. You will love the architecture, the shops and the restaurants. Allow yourself a few hours to explore – you’ll need it! Now, when you’re done exploring Sedona, if you have time, drive north through the switches and... // Explore Flagstaff I’m partial to Flagstaff because it’s where I went to college, but I’m really in love with this small mountain town. Going to explore Downtown Flagstaff â have amazing restaurants, unique shops, and beautiful historic buildings. This will have to be another guide for another time, but be sure to walk around the historic center square, as well as the few blocks south of the railroad tracks. Some of my food recommendations are Diablo Burger, the Lumberyard and Criollo Latin Kitchen. If you’re there in the morning, you should definitely take a look at Macy’s coffee bags and Biff (across the street). If you have time, climb up to Snowbowl to see the beautiful mountain and if it’s hot enough, take the ski lift to the top! Now go back to Phoenix... // Things to do at the Phoenix Lounge at The Westin Scottsdale Go to the pool at Westin in North Scottsdale â they have a lazy river and it’s perfect to cool off! Chill at The Teapot on 5th The Teapot is a family-run tea and coffee house located on Phoenix’s historic Roosevelt Row. It also serves as a space for events! Bring the kids – they’ll have a blast. Explore Old Town Scottsdale. Apart from all the Increased, there are tons of art galleries and interesting stores! You could could All day here. Look at Bull Bull's driving on the Buffalo chip in Cave Creek, go to Buffalo's chip to see Friday's live horse riding at 8 pm, at 9:30 pm, or 10:45 PM. It's free, but a little trip unless you stay in Cave Creek! I think it's worth the road; you've never seen anything like that if you're not from the southwest. Photo Via Desert Botanical Garden Desert Botanical Garden The Desert Botanical Garden is home to the beautiful AZ desert foliage. Stay for a while, take pictures, and if you are there during the right time of the year, check out Chihuly's exhibition. Museum of musical instruments, I've never been to the MIM, but I've only heard good things, and I do it planned for the next time I visit home! Mim has been recognized by TripAdvisor as one of the top 20 museums in the United States and has been rated the attraction of number 1 in Phoenix with TripAdvisor critics. Photo via Artur Ciesesielski Roosevelt Row Arts District Roosevelt Row is a fresh walking area where you can see some of the best arts and culture that Phoenix has to offer. This is located in downtown Phoenix right next to 3rd St and Roosevelt. Take a look at some of the murals; especially all the pieces of bird art! Phoenix Art Museum, I love the Phoenix Art Museum; It's the perfect summer activity (you know, when it comes out it's not an option). Your collections of photography and fashion are amazing, and definitely visit during the first Fridays! Vintage shopping on 7th Avenue The Melrose district on 7th Ave is known to be the vintage sky. Take a look at Modern Manor's for Modern Modern Midentury Furniture, Retro Strait for vintage clothing, Vintage Melrose for various vintage products (this is ideal for French-speaking), and Zinnias for an eclectic mix of all the above. If you are in the city at the right time, you may be able toa savage sweet, a vintage shopping event that happens on the 3rd weekend of every month. Trust me, it’s worth the wait. Bring cash so you can pick up your candy before someone else does Grab a book and a beer at First Draft Book Bar My childhood favorite bookstore, Changing Hands, opened this second location a few years ago and it’s been a wild success â I mean, who doesn’t want to grab a cold drink while enjoying their new favorite book? If you’re in Tempe, visit the original Changing Hands. It’s one of my top 10 favorite spots on the planet. Arizona Science Center Even as an adult, I think the AZ Science Center is so great. I’ve been going since I was a kid, and every time I go there’s something new to learn! Rent a Boat on Lake Saguaro Have fun in the Arizona sun. Renting a boat on Lake Saguaro is relatively cheap, and super fun! Sunscreen Pack: that the sun of AZ is incessant. Paddleboarding at Tempe Town Lake Tempe Town Lake is another man-made body of water, but offers great views of downtown Tempe! Again, bring your sunscreen and have fun! Horseback riding It’s Arizona, and horse ranches are plentiful. Some well-rated horseback riding spots around the Phoenix area include Spur Cross Stables, Cave Creek Trail Rides, and MTM Ranch! If you want to venture out of Phoenix, you can see some of these places. // Shopping: photo via Phoenix New Times Frances This trendy boutique in Central Phoenix is charming and full of AZ pride. I love shopping for gifts, or when I need something for myself that reminds me of home. He would compare his clothes and his collection of accessories to Anthropologie (but local). Check this place for good! If you visit in December, definitely attend their indie craft festival, Crafeteria. And if you’re a fan of music, check out Stinkweeds next door for a great selection of vinyl records. Bunky Boutique This cute little boutique in Phoenix LOVES Arizona. I practically drool on your Instagram every day; everything is so beloved! Their products are super unique and shout “greatest goddess.” It's a must! Phoenix General Phx PhxCo-owners Kenny Barrett and Joshua Hahn Handpick locally made gifts that are ethically created, sustainably sourced, and that invoke the “Desert Modern” aesthetic. So yes, I want to shop here all the time. Vida Moulin This Phoenix boutique screams bohemian, and I want everything they sell, including their swimsuits monkeys. Biltmore Fashion Park (Between Phoenix and Scottsdale) This mall covers almost all of my favorites, such as Lululemon, Jo Malone and J.Crew. It also houses some of my favorite food spots: White Tacos & Tequila, and Real Food Kitchen. While you’re in the area, watch Nordstrom Last Chance down the street! Chance Nordstrom’s last chance is a crazy money-saving store for people who have a lot of patience and a lot of coffee. You have to dig, but once you find the perfect sweater / boots / handbag, it’s all worth it. For example, I once bought a Marc Jacobs bag for $30. She had tears on her nylon, so I took her to a seamstress and she fixed it for $6. The bag was $500 new, and I got it for $36 + a little sweat. If you see something you love, don’t drop it for a second, lest it be scrambled by another hungry buyer. You’ve been warned. Happy shopping! Scottsdale Quarter " Kierland The district of Scottsdale " Kierland is located just across the street (and you can easily walk between the two). They have all the selection of favorites, like J. Crew, Antropologie, Lululemon, etc. The mall is outdoors, and it is very nice to walk around during the nicest months of the weather! If you go, check out True Food Kitchen or North Italy for lunch or dinner. Outlet Shopping Phoenix is home to many shopping malls, including the Phoenix Premium Outlets, the Outlets in Anthem (on their way north to Sedona or Flagstaff), and the Tanger Outlets in Glendale. // Seasonal Phoenix and Scottsdale Events â Dial your Winter Barrett-Jackson Collector Car Auction Waste Management Phoenix Open Spring Cubs Spring Spring SpringMcDowell Mountain Music Festival Scottsdale Culinary Festival Various dates during winter and spring Spring AZ Restaurant Week Chipotle Cultivate Festival Spring Junk In The Trunk Vintage Market Fall/Holiday Fall Junk In The Trunk Vintage Market Arizona Taco Festival Glendale Glendale Glitters // I’ll update this guit He traveled from Phoenix frequently, often, so keep coming back! If you have any other suggestions, please let me know; I am always willing to add to the list. Enjoy the sun!
