Subject: Affidavit Letter of Support for John and Jane Haarberg
Relationship to US citizen spouse: Father
Relationship to Alien petitioner: Father in law

Dear USCIS Officer,

I am writing to confirm that I have known Jane Doe since December 2014. My son, John Doe met her in the Philippines during a mission trip in 2013. He came back in the United States and told us about her and how he wanted to marry her. Within a few months John had already started his fiancée petition for Jane. I also helped John with his petition and signed a joint sponsor affidavit form for Jane's embassy interview in the Philippines. John went back to the Philippines in 2014 and they got married on 12/29/14 shortly after their arrival into the United States.

When John and Jane processed Jane's application for Adjustment of Status, I committed to be John's joint sponsor. Jane and John stayed with us for a while and we helped them financially until John got a stable job. They moved out in the month of July 2015 when they were financially able. John and Jane have now a daughter named Grace. My wife and I help watch their baby on the days that both of them are working.

As a father, I am assured that John and Jane's relationship is honest and authentic and their marriage will remain a lifetime commitment. Thank you for the opportunity to share this information with you. Please contact me at (425) 555-5555 if you require additional information.

I SWEAR OR AFFIRM THAT THE ABOVE AND FOREGOING STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT TO THE BEST OF MY INFORMATION, KNOWLEDGE, AND BELIEF.

Affidavit of loss example philippines. Cost of affidavit of loss philippines. Where to get affidavit of loss philippines.

An Affidavit of Loss is a written statement that describes the facts concerning the loss of an object, usually a document such as an identification card, a driver's license, passport, or documents relating to the registration of vehicles. An Affidavit of Loss is usually required when requesting for a replacement of a lost document or item. How to Use This Document This document should be completed by a person, known as the Affiant, who can attest under oath of their personal knowledge of the circumstances of the loss of the object. The Affiant is usually the owner of the lost object, especially if the affidavit is going to be used to support an application for a replacement of the lost object. The document includes identifying information of the Affiant, including their name, citizenship, age, and address. If the Affiant is a minor, the user will be asked the name of the guardian who will accompany the Affiant to the notary public and sign the affidavit. The guardian is the legal guardian who may be the parents or a court-appointed guardian. The document then describes the object that was lost and the circumstances of the loss. Finally, the document explains that the information stated therein are based on the personal knowledge of the Affiant and the Affiant verifies the truth of the said information. Finally, the Affiant may request for a replacement of the lost document. Once the affidavit has been completed, the Affiant must print at least 2 copies of the document. Thereafter, the Affiant must personally appear before a notary public and present at least one current identification document (I.D.) issued by an official agency bearing the photograph and signature of the Affiant. The affiant must swear under oath the whole truth of the contents of the affidavit and then sign all copies of the affidavit. If the Affiant is a minor, the Affiant must be accompanied by a legal guardian, which may a parent or a court-appointed guardian, when signing the affidavit. The guardian must also sign the affidavit. The Affiant will be asked to leave one original copy for the files of the notary public. Once notarized, the Affiant may use the document as needed, including as support for any application for a replacement of the lost object. Applicable Law There are no laws outlining the contents of an Affidavit of Loss. However, affidavits are governed by the 2004 Rules on Notarial Practice. How to modify the template You fill out a form. The document is created before your eyes as you respond to the questions. At the end, you receive it in Word and PDF formats.
