Thanks for reading the blog! The reader's interactions that currently say being in the Golden Age of TV. But who does not lose the programs they grew up? Some of the most influential days came in Ã â € ™0 60, Ã â € "and â €" and we want to honor the best of them. If you are a late Boomer or one of the first millenary, we have you covered. Here is a list of the main sést rie that debuted every year from 1962 - 1985, according to Nielsen's classifications. 1962: The Hillbillies Beverly The Beverly Hillbillies | Warner Bros. In September 1962, CBS sitcom, the beverly hills premiered. The history of rags for riches of a family that moves to Los Angeles after striking rich was in the air for nine seasons and was the highest sane of his first season. Originally he threw in black and white, the sane of single transition to color in the last years and generated two semi-spinoffs. 1963: Buy Junction Petticoat Junction | CBS from Paul Henning, the creator of the Hillbillies Beverly, came to conquer junction in the next year. Although it narrows in an admirable 4 in the classifications, the same way in the same way that it has never achieved the fame of its predecessor and continued to decline in popularity over the years. A direct spinoff, green acres, appeared in 1965. But in 1971, all three shows were canceled. 1964: Bewitched Bewitched | ABC began with a season of sorted freshman 2, ABC Sitcom, with a witch who married a mortal and tries to live like a housewife delight the fans for eight seasons. In fact, the supernatural theme was so successful that a rival series, I dream of Jeannie, narrow in the next year. However, as many other programs, enchanted only refused â €
