More details janee Cured List arrrrrrrrr! Over the past few years, I've amassed bookmarks, saved Reddit posts, and GitHub stars, all related to piracy in some form. This list is my attempt to organize and share these resources. Everything you need to start your pirate adventure can be found below. I realize that many of the sites on this list operate in the dark, and this list could potentially contribute to their downfall due to overexposure. Sorry - I just like making lists. Make sure you use an ad blocker like uBlock Origin to access any of the sites listed here otherwise you will have a bad time. Visit the Reddit thread at /r/Piracy for discussion and feedback. If you come across broken links, please report them by creating an issue. How to use this list Some of the items in this list can easily be assigned to more than one category. To make sure you find what you're looking for, use Ctrl + F (or Cmd + F on macOS). Emoji You will notice that some items in this list have a ð next to them. Articles with ð represent the author's best choice for that category. This is a completely peculiar review from someone who doesn't know everything about every item on the list, so make sure you research alternative options before assuming "the best is." Whenever possible, I research and test every resource I add to this list. Over the past few years, I've accumulated bookmarks, saved Reddit posts, and saved GitHub stars, all of which are related to piracy in one way or another. This list is my attempt to structure and share these resources. Below is everything you need to start your pirate journey. I am aware that some of the sites on this list rely on anonymity and that this list could contribute to their downfall due to over-disclosure. I regret it - I just love making lists. Please make sure you are using an ad blocker like uBlock Origin to access any of the sites listed here or you will be in trouble. Please visit the Reddit thread at /r/Piracy for discussion and feedback. If you notice broken links, please report them by creating an issue. How to use this list Some of the items on this list can easily fit into more than one category, so be sure to find what you're looking for.use Ctrl + F (or Cmd + F on macOS). Emotes You'll notice that some items in this list have a ð next to them. Items marked with ð are the author's best choice in this category. This is a completely biased assessment from someone who doesn't know everything about every item on the list, so be sure to check out the alternatives before assuming something is "best". That said, I research and test every resource I add to this list whenever possible.
